A Time To Keep (Truly Yours Digital Editions Book 763)

Synopsis

Rosalind MacLean is excited by the changes coming to Saddleback in the Montana Territory. The railroad will bring opportunities for travel, adventure, and maybe even romance! Rosalind and her best friend, Marlene, decide to open an outdoor diner to feed the hungry workmen and to hopefully find true love. Ewan Galbraith, a blacksmith, arrives in Saddleback to scout the area for the railroad and to warn the townspeople to keep their daughters home, away from the workmen. But his own resolve to guard the women and his heart is put to the test when he meets Rosalind. Ewan begins to court Rosalind, but when tragedy strikes, will their faith and trust in God provide them a time to keep their love strong?

Customer Reviews

Just read the first of three, taking place in Saddleback, Montana, A Time to Keep. The next one is, A Time to Laugh and the third one is, A Time to Plant. I didn't have high hopes for this story at first, about a couple meeting, falling in love and going on a few dates, etc. The story also covered some about the hero's and heroines background, of course, and their families so therefore her little brother Luke was mentioned quiet abit. You learn to love little Luke and commiserate with his family concerning his bad health. I won't mention anymore about Luke or anything else about the story, except to say I highly recommend this book and encourage the reader to download A Time to Keep.

Well, it's not five stars, but this is actually a pleasant love story. It's perhaps a bit one-dimensional, but the Christian element is much more effectively shared than in most books of this genre. The two lead characters are interesting, and the dialogue is engaging. There are some ragged hyphenations in this e-book, but that is a Barbour issue and not the fault of this promising author. Hard to believe she was still in college when she wrote this book!

Another hit! I really enjoy the characters and the weaving of their lives
