Customer Reviews

i don't understand how people are saying this ruined the other books....this novella was nothing short of amazing! it reminded me of all the reasons i fell in love with Abby and Travis in the first place. i am very sad to see their story end but full of excitement to get Trent and Cami's story!

All I can is that I loved the book and I wish I could have saw a glittery Trent :) Jamie McGuire has created a perfect addition to Abby and Travis's story and I wish them the HEA that they both deserve.

Ok, considering I love everything Travis Maddox, I have no idea what took me so long to read this book. Maybe because I thought it would just be more of the same, but no. McGuire, being the rock star writer that she is gives us more. Everything we could have ever wanted in knowing what happened before my favorite couple tied the knot in Vegas. Honestly, when I first read Beautiful Disaster I couldn't fathom why Abby would want to get married in Vegas, she hated that place. But this book explains it so well. The repercussions of the fire and the angst Travis experienced were things I had not even considered and yet made me love him even more. So if you are like me, don't wait any longer. Pick up this book and read it now, you will be so happy. The only problem is it will remind you of all the reasons you loved the first book so much you just want to reread it, and with my long TBR list, that is could be a problem

At first I wasn't entirely thrilled about Abby's intentions to marry Trav. But she finally got it right and for me this novella is a perfect fit for the series, now that we got to know what happened in Vegas. I don't understand all these bad reviews. Both Abby and Trav stayed true to their characters. They were acting like I'd expect them to from reading Beautiful Disaster and Walking Disaster. Well done, Mrs. McGuire! :)

This novella really brought the whole series together, I loved it as well as the entire series and I can't wait for the Maddox brothers stories!

I love it!!! I feel like Travis and Abby are family, and love reading about them no matter what there doing. I just can't get enough of them.

A Beautiful Wedding was the perfect insight into Travis and Abby's wedding in Vegas. In a Beautiful Disaster and Walking Disaster you don't get to see the wedding. They just go off to Vegas and get married and go back home. But A Beautiful Wedding fills in all those details of the trip to Vegas and their wedding. I absolutely loved the wedding between Abby and Travis. Their wedding was so sweet and romantic.

I can't believe I am writing a review for only 2 stars but it happened. I feel like this book ruined Beautiful Disaster for me. I loved and have read BD & WD over and over because I love Travis and the realness of their relationship. That being said I HATE that she makes the reason for Abby asking Travis to marry him to be because of anything but love. I do realize she was TRYING to save him out of love but I don't feel like the author showed the love. I also hate that she never has Abby come clean to Travis and that this lie is over their whole future and wedding. I was so disappointed and really wish I could erase this book from my memory.
