A Lowcountry Christmas (Lowcountry Summer Book 5)

Synopsis

A wounded warrior and his younger brother discover the true meaning of Christmas in this timeless story of family bonds. A poignant continuation of the Lowcountry Summer series. As far as ten-year-old Miller McClellan is concerned, itâ™s the worst Christmas ever. His fatherâ™s shrimp boat is docked, his mother is working two jobs, and with finances strained, Miller is told they canâ™t afford the dog he desperately wants. âœYour brotherâ™s return from war is our familyâ™s gift,â• his parents tell him. But when Taylor returns with PTSD, family strains darken the holidays. Then Taylorâ™s service dog arrivesâ• a large black Labrador/Great Dane named Thor. His brother even got the dog! When Miller goes out on Christmas Eve with his fatherâ™s axe, determined to get his family the tree they can't afford, he takes the dog for companyâ• but accidentally winds up lost in the wild forest. The splintered family must come together to rediscover their strengths, family bond, and the true meaning of Christmas.
